

Webster City Community Theatre

Endowed Scholarship 2020

Webster City Community Theatre is an organization of theatre amateurs who desire to bring the residents of this community in contact with theatre and opportunities to be a part of the theatre world. WCCT offers financial assistance to students who have participated in the theatre arts and who may be interested in receiving further education in that field; however, a theatre arts major is not required to qualify for the scholarship.

Webster City Community Theatre annually presents one or more scholarships of $500 to a graduate or graduating senior. The applicant must have been active in the theatre arts in his or her school or community. Preference will be given to applicants who were involved in WCCT productions. Preference will also be given to students pursuing careers in the arts, particularly performance arts.
